TWO PRESIDENTS.

Theodore Roosevelt and Grover Cleveland Arrived in St. Louis Wednesday.

THE LATTER WARMLY GREETED.

The Former, After an Informal Reception, Addressed Good Roads Convention in Odeon Hall.

The Two Distinguished Men Are Guests at the Residence of President Francis, of the Louisiana Purchase Exposition.

St. Louis, April 30.—President Roosevelt arrived in St. Louis Wednesday afternoon to participate in the dedication of the Louisiana Purchase exposition.

President Roosevelt left the train at Forsythe Junction, three miles out. The president was met at Forsythe Junction by members of the national commission of the World's fair, a reception committee, headed by President Francis and a crowd of spectators. For an hour before the presidential train arrived, troops of militia and squadrons of police were stationed about the point of disembarkation to prevent a crush.

President Roosevelt was accompanied by Gov. Dockery, who had joined the train at Keokuk, Ia. As the president stepped off the rear end of his car President Francis seized President Roosevelt's hand and gave him an informal welcome to St. Louis. After a brief reception the president was escorted to a carriage. Mayor Wells, Senator Carter and Secretary Loeb rode with the president directly to the good roads convention in Odeon hall.

People were congregated along the streets and wildly cheered as the president passed. He continually doffed his hat in acknowledgment. Odeon hall was packed. The president spoke of good roads in tones which showed as well as his words that he was thoroughly in sympathy with the object of the Good Roads' association.

From Odeon hall the president was driven at a sharp trot to St. Louis university. A few minutes were spent at the university. Then the president and other guests repaired to the home of Mr. Francis for dinner.

Grover Cleveland Wednesday night arrived over the B. & O. S. W. railroad. A large reception committee waited more than 30 minutes for the former president. In the meantime the train from Washington, bearing the members of the diplomatic corps, arrived 30 minutes before the committee had looked for it. The diplomats were promptly taken in hand by the committee and escorted to the quarters assigned to them. A portion of the committee remained to greet Mr. Cleveland, whose train came in shortly after the diplomats had driven away in carriages.

As Mr. Cleveland alighted from the train he was warmly greeted by President Francis, who had driven rapidly to the station after greeting President Roosevelt, at Forsythe Junction. The members of the committee crowded around and Mr. Cleveland was unable to proceed for several minutes so thick was the throng about him. A passage was cleared and Mr. Cleveland entered a carriage and was driven to the residence of President Francis, where President Roosevelt is also a guest.

TO FIGHT THE BEEF TRUST.

A Co-Operative Company Subscribes Twenty-Five Million Dollars.

Denver, Col., April 30.—Twenty-five million dollars has been subscribed for stock to a co-operative company by members of the National Live Stock association to fight the beef trust if the trust successfully carries through the merger of the Chicago packing companies and allied interests. President John W. Springer, of the National Live Stock association, said Wednesday that if the exigencies of the conditions require the association could enter upon the building of a chain of packing houses throughout the principal points in the west and east.

THE KILLING OF HARLESS.

Indictments Returned Against Deputy Marshals and Others.

Indianapolis, Ind., April 30.—Official advices were received at the headquarters of the United Mine Workers of America Wednesday night that the grand jury had returned indictments for the killing of Miner Harless, in West Virginia, against Deputy United States Marshal Dan Cunningham, Deputy Marshal Summers, Superintendent Lang, of one of the coal companies, and Stewart Hurst and Clints George, two guides.

ON TO THE MOUNTAINS.

Columbus and Maysville Road Should Not Stop Here, But Should Be Extended to Rich Coal Fields.

Morehead and West Liberty will soon be connected by rail. Work on the road was begun in 1890, but after part of the grading had been done, and about three miles of track was laid, the plan was abandoned. Mr. E. B. Carr, the original promoter, has again taken hold, and there is no question now, says a dispatch, about the road being finished. It will be a great thing for the towns it will connect, and the country it traverses. The finest canal coal in the world is in Morgan County, and all that is necessary to get it to a market is sufficient railroad facilities. The coal is in the hills, and can be mined at a small expense. Canal coal is usually found several feet below the surface of the earth, and the cost of mining is great. With the exception of about ten miles between Cannel City and West Liberty, when the new road is finished there will be railroad connections with West Liberty and Jackson. The Kentucky and Ohio road connects Jackson and Cannel City.

Work was commenced at Ripley this week on the Columbus and Maysville road. The company expects to have the line between Ripley and Georgetown completed by August. The promoters of the road should not stop at Aberdeen, but should extend the line from Maysville to a connection with the first named road at Morehead. By securing Fleming's narrow gauge and converting it into a standard gauge, they would have but two gaps to construct, one between Maysville and Johnson and the other between Hillsboro and Morehead. This would give them and the net work of Central and Northern Ohio roads the most direct connection with the rich coal and timber fields of Eastern Kentucky.

MEAT PRICES GO SKYWARD.

Gotham Dealers Forced to Raise Charges and Accuse Packers of Causing the Advance.

New York, April 27.—"Twenty-six cents a pound for porterhouse steak!" exclaimed a housewife in Jefferson market to-day. "Why, I suppose you'll be wanting to come around and draw my husband's salary next. I just won't deal with you any more."

Then she founced out of the butcher shop and went to another establishment, where a similar price was quoted to her. "Well, how do you sell chickens?" she asked in desperation.

"They're up, too," responded the butcher. "It's all owing to the beef trust. Them Chicago fellows are beginning to boost prices again. We held back for awhile, but we found that we 'could not make any profit, and now we have to raise the rates, too."

The woman bought a bluefish, and declared she was going to induce her husband to become a vegetarian.

Retail men say the packers are defying the injunction issued by Judge Grosscup.

River News.

Indiana for Pomeroy and Keystone State for Pittsburg to-night. Down, the Tacoma.

The Sprague is coming up the Mississippi with the biggest tow of empties ever attempted. She has now thirty-two coal boats and eleven barges and will add three more barges at Helena.

The United States lighthouse tender Golden Rod has arrived at headwaters after visiting all the lights along the Ohio, making repairs, furnishing supplies, &c. After making slight repairs she will turn back to Pt. Pleasant and inspect the lights up the Kanawha river.

The Paint Creek Coal Company, which recently bought the coal elevator of the Consolidated Coal and Mining Company at Cincinnati, is negotiating for the purchase of Captain Tom Hall's towboats—Jack Frost, Douglas Hall and Convoy—and barges for the transportation of Kanawha coal to Cincinnati. The company has a new steel coal tippie on the Kanawha capable of loading 125,000 bushels of coal a day into barges.

There is a circus war on at Portsmouth. Harris was there last week. Wallace is billed for May 2nd, Robinson's for May 6th, Barnum & Bailey for a June date and the great water circus will be along May 1st. Speaking of the clash between Robinson and Wallace, the Blade says: "Bills have been posted on every conceivable place. Actually in various points in the county bills are hanging from trees. It is estimated that both circuses have issued 3,000 free passes. A circus war is expensive and Wallace or Robinson do not expect to take away a barrel of money from this city."

GIVEN TO THE JURY.

A Verdict in the Howard Murder Trial Expected Thursday.

Frankfort, Ky., April 30.—The case of Jim Howard, twice tried and convicted as a principal in the murder of William Goebel, was submitted to the jury again Wednesday afternoon at the conclusion of the argument in his third trial. Judge Cantrill gave the jurors very strict orders as to the secrecy they should maintain during their consideration of the case and adjourned court to convene at 9 o'clock Thursday, when a verdict is expected. The morning session of the court was taken up by the speeches of Attorneys Violett and Scott for the defense.

In closing for the state Wednesday afternoon Commonwealths Attorney Franklin occupied about three hours. He administered a merciless exhortation of the defendant and one point in his speech dramatically exhibited to the jury was the blood-stained clothing which Gov. Goebel wore when he was shot by the assassin.

Mrs. Howard, who has been entertained by prominent people of the city during the trial, occupied a seat by the side of her husband and his counsel.

HORSE HITCHED IN AN ALLEY.

An Alleged Scheme to Release James Howard.

Frankfort, Ky., April 30.—A clean-limbed, racy looking horse was discovered hitched to the fence in the dark alley in the rear of the Frankfort jail Wednesday night, and it started a rumor that a scheme was on foot among Jim Howard's friends to effect his release. Nothing had developed, however, up to midnight. Several extra guards have been on duty about the jail for several nights, which indicates that the officials have been warned of something.

COUNTY MEDICAL SOCIETY.

Officers Chosen For Ensuing Year at the Monthly Meeting Wednesday Afternoon.

The annual meeting for the election of officers of the Mason County Medical Society was held yesterday afternoon.

Dr. Alex. Hunter, of Washington, was elected President, Dr. J. B. Taulbee, Vice President, Dr. Davis, of Mayslick, Treasurer, Dr. A. G. Browning, Secretary.

Dr. Taulbee gave a very interesting report of the proceedings of the Louisville convention, at which he was in attendance as the delegate from this county. By request he read before the society the admirable paper upon "Fractures" which was so favorably received at Louisville. In a letter addressed to Dr. A. G. Browning by the President-elect, Dr. Bailey, Dr. Taulbee was highly complimented for his services as representative. Not only was his elaborate paper well received but his work upon the committees was highly appreciated by the House of Delegates.

The State Association, as reorganized, was the largest medical body ever assembled in Kentucky, and the results of its deliberations will be felt in every county of the State.

The Medical Society of Mason County was never in a more flourishing condition than at present. The best members of the profession are registered and "paid up" members, and the interest manifested in its meetings continues to increase.

THE VALLEY SHOOK

Unexplained Eruption on Turtle Mountain, B. C., Killed Over 100 Persons.

HURLED MILLIONS OF TONS OF ROCK

Many of the Houses of the Mining Town of Frank Demolished by the Falling Debris.

The Eruptive Influences Seem to Be Centered Right at the Crown of the Mountain, But No Lava Has Appeared.

Vancouver, B. C., April 30.—A dispatch from Frank, a mining town in Southwestern Alberta, says: A tremendously loud reverberation shook the whole valley of the Old Man's river Wednesday morning at 4:10 o'clock and before the inhabitants had awakened to a realization of the impending danger, from the top of Turtle mountain there were hurled millions of tons of rock.

The Frank mines, across the river from the town, were seen to be buried under hundreds of feet of rock just as the morning light was breaking. Inside of five minutes from the first thunderous shock and before half of the town realized what had happened a small force of men had started to the relief of the miners despite the great risk they ran of being buried under the rocks, which was still being precipitated from the lofty mountain top. The volunteer relief force was unable to get into the mine. The disaster was merciful to those who were employed above ground in that they must have been killed instantly.

Most of the men imprisoned in the mine, whose death at first seemed certain, got out alive late Wednesday afternoon. There were 17 men in the mine. Two died from suffocation, but the other 15 worked their way out uninjured after cutting their way through 30 feet of debris. One of the men who escaped went home after emerging from the mine and found his house destroyed and his wife and six children dead.

The disaster was not confined to the vicinity of the mine alone, for many of the dwelling houses in the town of Frank were demolished by the falling rock. Some of the occupants of these houses escaped death, but many others were instantly killed. It is conservatively estimated that the loss of life will exceed 100 and the latest returns place the number of dead at 112.

When reports concerning the magnitude of the disaster and details concerning it began to come in from trustworthy men, it transpired that the earth had opened for three-quarters of a mile in length and for many feet in width, and that the whole northern face of Turtle mountain had slipped from place.

The shock resultant upon the precipitation of the tons of rock into the valley while actually demolishing few of the houses, so shook the foundations of most of the dwellings in the town that they are unsafe to live in and many people will have to live in the open air or under such temporary shelter as may be procurable. The railroad track for a distance of two miles or more east of the station is covered with from 10 to 20 feet of rock and the telegraph wires are down.

At dusk Wednesday the rock was still falling on the town from Turtle mountain and it is dangerous to venture within half a mile of the mine workings.

It is believed that the disruption of Turtle mountain was brought about by a seismic disturbance, although there are people who declare that the origin of the upheaval was volcanic. No lava has been seen, and aside from the smoke from the mountain the atmosphere is clear. There is, however, no explanation for the continued upheaval of rock. The eruptive influences seem to center right at the crown of Turtle mountain.

The Maysville Drummer.

[Mt. Olivet Advance, April 25th.]

The Maysville drummer is invincible. Tuesday, Will Smoot, a knight of the grip, knowing of our quarantine, slipped in on the Bridgeville pike. Judge Kenton spied him and going to the phone asked the drummer's boss if he were in Maysville. "No," came the answer. "When did he leave Maysville?" Innocently came the answer, "Yesterday." Then the Judge was after him, but before he could find his man a friend had given him a tip and the drummer slept that night in Piqua.

The Biggest Little Thing

measured by the amount of nutritive value it contains, is the fresh soda cracker. Many people think a cracker an insignificant and easy thing to make—yet no one ever succeeded in reaching perfection until Uneeda Biscuit were introduced. To maintain the quality of Uneeda Biscuit requires the best of everything—wheat, flour, baker, and bakery.

Uneeda Biscuit furnishes every element necessary to bodily vigor; and, above all, they are fresh and clean. This is due to the In-er-seal Package—identified by the famous red and white trade mark design—which protects them from the air, moisture, dust and other things not best to mention. There's a world of worry, work, skill and care in making a soda cracker like—

A BIG CIRCUS!

Once upon a time there was a big circus in Coatsville and the circus had such a great reputation that country people many miles around came to see it, in fact a great many that came had a hard time to get standing room. This circus always played at Coatsville and of course the merchants of Coatsville had a big trade. Around Coatsville there were a great many little country towns and they found that their little circus did not bring the crowds or even keep the people from going to Coatsville, so all these little places had a meeting and decided to pass laws to keep their people home, and they placed guards, with a big gun, on all streets and put a big sign on the gun that read: "Don't go to Coatsville for we have a circus of our own that needs booming." But people went through the fields.

MORAL: See that your own circus is all right and you need not bother about others.

FAIR GROUND SOLD.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Sphar Become Owners of All North of C. and O. Road, Price Paid Being $10,000.

Mr. John Duley, as agent for Messrs. J. W. Fitzgerald, Thomas A. Keith, P. P. Parker and David Hechinger, Wednesday sold to Mr. A. C. Sphar and wife all that part of the Maysville fair ground property lying north of the C. and O. railroad and extending to the Ohio river, the price paid being $10,000.

The negotiations had been in progress several days. The deal includes the large grand stand, floral hall and other buildings.

Mr. Sphar declined to state just what he contemplated doing with the property. He thinks he secured a bargain in his purchase, as the buildings cost more than the price he paid. The ground is underlaid with fine clay, and the new owners may use this at their brick plant just east of the grounds. This could be done without interfering much with the property for fair purposes.

FIRE AT HELENA STATION.

Mr. W. H. Robb's Handsome Home Destroyed by Flames at 8 O'clock This Morning.

Mr. Wm. H. Robb's handsome home near Helena Station caught fire about 8 o'clock this morning and burned to the ground. A stiff breeze was blowing, and the flames spread rapidly, but the family saved most of the best furniture and household goods.

The house was a large two-story frame and cost $4,000 to $5,000. The loss on building and contents is probably not less than $5,000 or $6,000.

The building was insured in the Mason County Mutual Aid Association, of which Mr. Robb is President, for $2,000.

The furniture was insured in the London and Liverpool and Globe for $1,000. The fire started, it is thought, from the kitchen flue.

There is a possibility that it may not get here so soon, but there is hardly any likelihood that its arrival will be delayed more than a day or two beyond that date. First come, first served, will be the rule. Be in time to share the first car-load. A limited quantity of 26-inch now in stock.

IMPORTANT ANNOUNCEMENT OF THE MAYSVILLE GAS COMPANY.

Under 2000 cu. ft. of Gas $1.50 per 1000.

Over 2000 cu. ft. of Gas and under 3000 cu.

ft. $1.25 per 1000.

3000 cu. ft. of Gas and over $1 per 1000.

At a meeting of the Board of Directors of the Maysville Gas Company March 28th, 1903, it was ordered that on and after the first day of April, 1903, the above sliding scale of price of gas for all purposes, fuel and illuminating, should go into effect for all private consumption, and that all rates and discounts heretofore made are hereby abolished.

It was further ordered that after the first of April the old rule of the company "gas will be turned off if account is not paid within five days after presentation" shall be enforced, impartially and indiscriminately, regardless of whom it may concern. (This action was taken not to appear arbitrary nor with the idea that the accounts of the consumers were not perfectly good at any time during the month, or a year later for that matter, but for the good of all concerned and in order that this part of the business of the company might be taken up at a specified time during the month and disposed of, and further in order that the time and thought of the company's agents and employees, now so largely occupied with this work of collecting, might for the balance of the month be diverted toward giving consumers of gas better attention and more efficient supply and service.

It was further ordered that beginning with the first of May and for each and every month thereafter, the monthly statement of account of each consumer should be delivered to said consumer by an agent of the company on the first day of the month, or the second day, if the first comes on Sunday, and that said account shall thereafter within five days be due and payable at the office of the company on Court street, Maysville, Ky., and if not so paid, gas will be promptly shut off.

The gas company further announces that, after the first day of April, they will handle and sell at cost price to gas consumers any and every variety of gas stoves and ranges made by and shown in the catalogue of the Detroit Stove Works, Detroit, Mich., which price will be a sum equivalent to 50 per cent. discount from the list prices in said catalogue. These stoves and ranges will be sold for cash only, or according to the terms of a printed lease, whereby easy payments are extended over a period of from twelve to seventeen months. For instance, take a gas range listed in catalogue at $26, the gas company will sell this range to consumer for $13 cash or for $2.50 cash at signing of lease and 50 cents a month for seventeen months, at the expiration of which time the range is sole property of consumer. The company has selected to handle the Detroit Jewel Gas Range on account of its acknowledged superiority and wide reputation for durability and economical consumption of gas. The gas company will also handle, at cost price to consumer, the fixtures and mantles of the Weisbach Company in all of their many attractive varieties.

Before closing this announcement the gas company wishes to publicly express appreciation of the eminently fair, just and courteous treatment accorded them by his honor, the Mayor, and the Board of Council, particularly the Chairman and members of the Gas Committee of that body, through whose efforts in behalf of the private consumers, the above concession in the price of gas is now announced.

With the assurance to the citizens of Maysville that it will be the earnest effort of the company and its agents to at all times give them their best possible service at the least cost, we beg to remain, very respectfully, MAYSVILLE GAS CO.

P. S.—On and after April 1st the gas company will have on exhibition at the plumbing establishment of Mr. Larry Langfels on Market street, samples of the Detroit Jewel Gas Ranges, to the inspection of which those interested are cordially invited. You can leave your order for a range with any representative of the gas company, with Mr. Langfels or your regular plumber, with whom you will have to make arrangements for the connecting and fitting up of range in case of the placing of order.
